PERSPECTIVES OF

We cordially invite you to the 3rd annual joint PhD conference of the Philosophy Departments and the Institute of Philosophy of the CAS.

The conference for PhD students and philosophy master's students serves to present student research, develop discussion on contemporary and historical philosophical topics, and establish contacts in the next generation of academia.

Conference papers should reflect the current state of philosophical research and offer original and creative approaches in this field. We are open to a wide range of topics, including epistemology, ethics, political philosophy, philosophy of language, aesthetics, philosophy of science, history of philosophy, and other related fields.

If you are interested in presenting your research, please send us an anonymised abstract of your paper of 250-300 words in PDF format to perspektivy@flu.cas.cz by 31 May 2026. In the accompanying email, please include your details: name, surname, titles, affiliations, and type of study, and use the attached template to create your abstract.

We look forward to your contributions and the diversity of thought perspectives.
